

3D ANAGLYPH PHOTOGRAPHY

This show will feature photographs that have been made into 3-d images through software manipulation. Never heard of it? It's a simple process that anyone with a digital camera and basic image editing can have fun with. Entry forms and more information on the process are available at www.capitolartsnetwork.com.

Juror Tom Statas is an award winning nature and wildlife photographer based in the Washington, DC, area. His work has been shown in numerous local and national venues.
